#	DESCRIBE WHAT YOU PICKED AND WHY.	DATE
1	1. Music: been involve in choirs and choral groups as a child--love anthems and classical choral. 2. My husband and I chose our church partly because we both love the liturgy from Book of Common Prayer 3. Christ died for me so I will never be separated from God--I want to be reminded of this regularly.	11/7/2018 10:05 AM
2	Always look forward to hearing scripture read. Also enjoy the classical hymns.	11/7/2018 8:42 AM
3	Music (traditional) is important to me. If I don't/cant' take communion I feel something is missing. I like the tradition and meanings of our liturgy.	11/7/2018 8:02 AM
4	Love Mother Elisa's preaching and that it is a small/medium size community.	11/7/2018 7:49 AM
5	It's hard to pick just three. I definitely attend to hear a good message that can be applied to my daily life. In addition, music speaks to me almost as much as the message and to me sets the tone for the rest of the service. I grew up with the liturgical style so that feels comfortable.	10/31/2018 6:39 AM
6	I tend to be a traditionalist when it comes to grand organs and the classical hymns. As a cradle Episcopalian nearing 72 years of age I have always liked consistency of our liturgy and the inclusion of communion each week in our service. Since I was only able to pick three, preaching and the quality of adult Sunday school classes rank right up very closely among my choices.	10/30/2018 2:24 PM
7	I am still looking for a church which is more warm and welcoming with a wider variety of ages. This church is more "conservative" than I would like. It would be nice to attend a church in the area where they offered some non-religious musical concerts and plays as well as some less formal activities.	10/23/2018 4:12 PM
8	I chose the Episcopal church because of the liturgy, music, and I love that we have Communion every Sunday. I love how we worship.	10/20/2018 10:42 AM
9	We like to go early as we are often busy with family later in the day. I like the music and like to get communion weekly.	10/17/2018 1:28 PM
10	I sing in the choir, so except for the weekends when I have to work, my choice of services is pre-determined.	10/16/2018 3:30 PM
11	The sermon and music are what connects or does connect with me.	10/14/2018 10:49 AM
12	Service seems long. Anything longer than an hour seems long (my Methodist background speaking). I like a longer sermon but not used to the long communion practice weekly.	10/13/2018 7:04 PM
13	Love the music and the full service ambience with Communion	10/9/2018 4:50 PM
14	Liturgy, dogma and adoration of our God are the elements which result in my regular attendance at church services	10/9/2018 7:38 AM
15	The traditional services and the feeling of warmth and welcomeness	10/8/2018 5:47 PM
16	The sermon is a very important part of the service to me, as I love to dig into the bible readings and apply them to my life. Also, Sunday School is a huge part of my Christian development, and it's convenient to have this right before or after the service. The music is also an important worship element for me. Lastly, developing friends and fellowship at church also makes the experience richer for me	10/8/2018 4:40 PM
17	Communion is the most important part of the service and what brings me to church. Episcopalian liturgy and music are what bring me to this church.	10/6/2018 10:55 AM
18	I want HE as part of my worship. The day and time matter because of my lifestyle. I enjoy the option of Saturday evening.	10/3/2018 1:47 PM
19	We enjoy the choir but would like a bit more songs with congregation participation.	10/2/2018 3:01 PM
20	I am an usher at 8AM and we like the 5:30 because of type of service, fellow parishioners there, etc.	10/1/2018 3:02 PM
21	I come to hear a message from the priest and to personally worship and have communion.	10/1/2018 12:37 PM

Thanks for taking about 5 minutes for this survey: some fast questions, some short ones, and a few that make you think.

22	I enjoy and am ministered to by the substance of the elements within the liturgical style (significant scripture reading, Nicene Creed, sermon, communion, ...) while not necessarily having a full appreciation for the weekly uniformity/rigidity of it.	10/1/2018 10:40 AM
23	I'm an early riser and the entire day is available for other activities. Communication is important and I like a good message from our Priest.	9/29/2018 6:46 PM
24	Praise and worship music would be a nice option.	9/29/2018 11:21 AM
25	I'm a musician so obviously music is important to me. We chose SPSP in large part due to the liturgical style. I find Sunday School to be a great way to develop a sense of community and to study God's purpose in a smaller, more intimate and focused way.	9/28/2018 11:40 AM
26	I grew up in the Episcopal Church and I prefer Rite 1 since that was the one we used	9/27/2018 8:27 PM
27	I would also include service attendance based on when other friends attend.	9/27/2018 9:30 AM
28	You left out... The formal, traditional procession... yes this is important Having a Bishop sometimes preach... yes this is a value add Incense... yes this makes holidays special Classical music	9/26/2018 8:21 PM
29	I attend Sunday School regularly and prefer to attend church afterwards. I attend the Saturday 5:30 service when I chalice.	9/26/2018 6:31 PM
30	Must have communion weekly.	9/26/2018 2:48 PM
31	More traditional liturgy and music appeal to me and enhance my worship. Service without communion feels incomplete.	9/26/2018 12:07 PM
32	These 3 items bring me closer to God.	9/26/2018 8:32 AM
33	We like our visual and audible senses to be engaged. (the interior of the church is beautiful - alter, windows, flowers. The music is very important to us- see comments below.) Weekly communion is my sustenance and truly engages me to being a more fulfilled Christian. The spoken message is very important and is Very well delivered at SPSP.	9/26/2018 7:39 AM
34	It is important to feel like you are with family while worshiping. I also value coming to church to learn and grow. The readings and teachings are very important; i am also a creature of habit and enjoy ritual	9/25/2018 2:36 PM
35	Availability of Children's Church. The full service is still too long for him to sit through without difficulties during the Summer.	9/25/2018 1:19 PM
36	Saturday fits our schedule better but we enjoy Sunday service for special occasions or holiday seasons. We like the small numbers on Saturday and the service feels like a family gathering.	9/24/2018 7:49 PM
37	I prefer a traditional service with traditional music and Eucharist centered.	9/24/2018 5:18 PM
38	As very new members, we are still "feeling" our way around. Music is very important to me as a singer. This past Sunday, September 23, musically spoke to my heart and allowed me to sing what I am familiar with. What a treat!!	9/24/2018 4:25 PM
39	I enjoy the later service, not only because I am not an early riser, but because I particularly love the music at the 10:30 service and the liturgical style being a bit more ceremonial. I do like being a part of a larger service also,	9/24/2018 11:50 AM
40	The music is outstanding, I particularly enjoy traditional hymns and service music. The preaching at SPSP is also special and always thought provoking. As a life long Episcopalian, holy communion is essential to me.	9/24/2018 11:32 AM
41	Music and length of the service are somewhat important but liturgy which includes communion and the preaching are the most important	9/24/2018 11:12 AM
42	Like the early Sunday service with full music. Like to get the day started early. Always interested in the sermon.	9/24/2018 10:42 AM
43	Love the traditional liturgy and music. The sermons reflect on the Biblical readings and history reinforcing and teaching us and clarifying some points that may not always be clear. Feel that approximately an hour or so is a good length and still leaves the rest of the day for what ever activity one has plans for.	9/23/2018 6:15 PM
44	"Other" is the wonderful priests at this church	9/23/2018 2:57 PM
45	I find that liturgy and music soothe my soul and I need a strong message that has been thoughtfully developed. I	9/23/2018 2:32 PM

Thanks for taking about 5 minutes for this survey: some fast questions, some short ones, and a few that make you think.

46	I like the 8am service for the time, the length, the fact Sunday school is directly after, and the fact the service is a little simpler than the 10:30. Music is important, but the choir being at 10:30 is not enough to overcome the benefits of the 8am for me to switch. The question of communion and preaching is harder to judge as all services at this point offer the same options. I think the preaching might make me think about which service I went to. I grew up with communion only once a month so I don't think communion would really impact me.	9/23/2018 12:07 PM
47	We used to go to the Saturday service but have been attending the Sunday 8 a.m. service so that we can go to Sunday School. Communion as part of the service is very important to me.	9/23/2018 10:22 AM
48	It is important how I feel after a service... what is my "take away"... be it a message from the experience (sermon, music or interaction) or simply time shared with those I love.	9/22/2018 4:21 PM
49	It starts my week off right to attend church on Sunday. Communion and the liturgy leading to it put me with God or the Spirit and I value that time. It's my time with the Lord at church. The sermons at St P and P are always thought provoking. I love leaving our church with a message I can share or discuss.	9/22/2018 4:18 PM
50	Occasionally come to 5:30, but miss the music. Church activity is part of my social interaction, so like to see friends after services.	9/22/2018 9:07 AM
51	Things I am comfortable with	9/22/2018 9:00 AM
52	I live to sing the hymns and they add so much to the glory of God. Communion is essential as a way confess my sins and receive Gods forgiveness and renewal. I love to hear the preaching as it provides insight into Gods word and provokes thought on how I can apply it to my daily life.	9/22/2018 8:39 AM
53	Our church is a place to WORSHIP GOD; this is always accomplished through our order of service, and just being able to sit in a pew can fill one with love for Christ.	9/21/2018 6:01 PM
54	I love Communion. Having it every Sunday really connects me to God. I like the liturgy as well.	9/21/2018 5:58 PM
55	Communion is a must - prefer "low" church style except occasional "singing" of the Psalms which is beautiful on occasion. We appreciate a great sermon and enjoy a message of joy but making us think and reminds us of our responsibilities as Christians. Important	9/21/2018 2:29 PM
56	interesting down to earth messages	9/21/2018 11:24 AM
57	Music is important to me spiritually. The day and time are picked because of weekday schedules and traffic. The liturgy is important because I prefer our more formal style of worship.	9/21/2018 10:59 AM
58	depends if i have a job during the 1030. if not, then 0800.	9/21/2018 10:20 AM
59	I prefer what I would describe as the high Episcopal church liturgy...more traditional maybe as the best interpretation of what I mean. I like to hear the preaching to help me understand how I should be living according to God's word. I like the interpretation of the Bible and its teachings. I like knowing that the priests know who I am and that they are friendly and out-going. I like friendly, welcoming parishoners - which encourages me to become an active part of the parish.	9/21/2018 8:36 AM
60	Prefer 10:30	9/21/2018 7:57 AM
61	I'm assuming here that it being an Episcopalian service is a given, so after that, the music is important to me. I love the organ, the choir, and classical music.	9/21/2018 7:42 AM
62	i am an early riser so 8am is great. the preaching means alot to me,	9/21/2018 4:04 AM
63	All take me back to my Roman Catholic roots, so the comfort allows to me to present versus making sure I'm doing things right	9/20/2018 9:08 PM
64	I love the 10:30 Service because of the liturgical style, (sometimes Rite I)and the beautiful music.	9/20/2018 8:42 PM
65	I am at peace in the church, I love every part of it.	9/20/2018 8:36 PM
66	distance from church and type of service - for 10:30 service	9/20/2018 8:31 PM
67	Day & Time habit from prior needs. Communion at center of worship. Length for attention span.	9/20/2018 8:15 PM
68	Old school Episcopalian	9/20/2018 7:54 PM
69	I really like the tradition of our service and our music is beautiful.	9/20/2018 7:40 PM
70	Also, convenient location to my home and work	9/20/2018 6:33 PM

Thanks for taking about 5 minutes for this survey: some fast questions, some short ones, and a few that make you think.

71	The music sets a rich tone for me. It offers a beautiful setting for the worship of God. The preaching is where I learn, where I question my own actions and responsibilities as a Christian and challenges me to be a better person. If the preaching does not hold my attention, I don't feel I am growing closer to God. After retirement, I have lost touch with most of my former business associates. 90% of our friends are at church. I have felt their love and support in ways I never felt from business acquaintances. Because I get all three of these areas covered, I love my church!	9/20/2018 4:44 PM
72	I attend church to worship, to reflect on my faith, to learn about God through Sunday School, the sermon, the liturgy, and renewal via Communion.	9/20/2018 4:30 PM
73	I like the serenity, and the smaller participation, of the Saturday night service, unless it's high holidays and then always want the full mass. I feel the priests are more involved with us during the Saturday night.	9/20/2018 3:53 PM
74	I like the service to be near Sunday School, I have never tried a Saturday service, but I should!	9/20/2018 3:45 PM
75	All three are important to me. I especially love teaching Sunday school.	9/20/2018 3:37 PM
76	You haven't gone to church if you haven't had communion is how I feel which is what makes this important to me in picking a church. The service can't be too long or else I lose focus which is why I like the 8:00am service that is only an hour long. Finally, the preaching must be kept at a reasonable length.	9/20/2018 3:33 PM
77	Communion is very important to me but having a community is what is need to have communion. I prefer rite II because it moves more fluid than rite I.	9/20/2018 3:16 PM
78	Very important components in Episcopal tradition, these 3 things. Part of what led me to become an Episcopalian in the first place.	9/20/2018 3:15 PM
79	I love our music. I love the liturgy. Without these I would leave.	9/20/2018 3:11 PM
80	I like having a service that is familiar...I like having traditional organ music as the "usual" music for the service. I like having hymns that are easy for the congregation to sing. I like having a sermon that gives a message without dragging on. I like that the service is a time for worship, not visiting with each other(we can do that after the service).	9/20/2018 3:00 PM
81	As a cradle Espcopalian, having communion at each service is very important to me. I also prefer a traditional worship service as well as traditional hymns from the hymnal. Music is a vital part of my worship experience, and having a strong music program is important to me.	9/20/2018 2:58 PM
82	The sermons is what drew me to St Peter when I first came.	9/20/2018 2:55 PM
83	These were my initial reasons for choosing the 5:30 service. Now I keep coming because of the friends I've made, the preaching and the size of the congregation. It's an intimate, caring group of people whom I grow closer to with every service.	9/20/2018 2:50 PM
84	I have had a career in education and have raised two children. In other words my life has been filled with the energy and noise of children! That may be why I value the quiet, peaceful service at 5:30 on Saturday evening. It is a time of reflection for me. I have been attending that service and ushering for 20 years if not more. The Saturday night regulars are a dedicated group and committed to that service.	9/20/2018 2:42 PM
85	Music is as important as anything else to me. I love the selections that are made for our services! Extra emphasis for traditional music that has carried on for generations. Hearing and singing hymns that I've heard since childhood strengthens me today. We prefer a very traditional style of worship service. Church worship service should not be like other gatherings (emphasis on "fun" or "lively", etc...) It's special. Other Church activities can be "contemporary" in my opinion. Finally, weekly communion is very important and one of the reasons we remain Episcopalian vs. any other Protestant faith.	9/20/2018 2:39 PM
86	Everything that comes before the Eucharist should be done in a way that helps the communicants to truly experience it as a means of grace.	9/20/2018 2:38 PM
87	life is busy, but one must not forget about God.	9/20/2018 2:35 PM
88	My family overall likes to 8:00 service because we have more time for the rest of the day. I actually like the 10:30 service better b/c of music and more fellowship, but I am outvoted so it is better to go at 8 than not at all.	9/20/2018 2:33 PM
89	I enjoy praising God through music.	9/20/2018 2:32 PM

90	I prefer the traditional worship and liturgical style. The music is very important to me. I like to be able to sing along. I did like when there were guitars in with the choir. I prefer Tom's preaching style of relating to today's issues and thoughts to ponder rather than stressed.	9/20/2018 2:27 PM
91	Music is a big part of my life and for me, it enhances my experience and relationship with God during the service. I would love to see us experiment with different genres of Christian music....Praise and Worship, etc. The sermon is a very important part of the service for me. I not only learn something about my God..but about myself as well. Often times, Tom or Elisa's sermon feels like the Holy Spirit is speaking to me through them. My friends/ Community. While I am very comfortable being at a service without friends (and when that occurs, I make an effort to meet someone new) - but being with people who I know and love, enhances the feeling of true Community in Christ for me.	9/20/2018 2:24 PM
92	We started coming to the 5:30pm service as the kids liked it better (probably because they didn't have to wake up early on Sunday mornings).	9/20/2018 2:20 PM
93	Preaching is by far the most important, valuable and critical. I walk in those doors to grow my faith and relationship with the Lord, but I need to sit and listen and be a "teachable" servant. I need to give my attention to his Word as does my family.	9/20/2018 2:18 PM
94	We have young children, and so the date/time and nursery availability relate to that. The Episcopalian way of "doing church" works well for both myself, having grown up attending Episcopal and Evangelical churches, and for my wife, who grew up a Catholic. We both enjoy and support the music, liturgical style, communion, and preaching that St. Peter & St. Paul offers.	9/20/2018 2:17 PM
95	I love our traditional liturgy and music that ties in to the lectionary. It adds layers of meaning for me.	9/20/2018 2:16 PM
96	Music helps to bring the word of God to life. Communion is the critical element(s) in making a service "official"! And the day & time matters for our weekly schedule.	9/20/2018 2:07 PM
97	Three components of worship that for me, contribute most toward connecting with God.	9/20/2018 2:05 PM
98	I have children so the day and time of a service is key. Getting children out the door is hard word. Also, the liturgical style is important to me because it has a great impact on how I engage with the service.	9/20/2018 2:04 PM
99	The Sunday service seems to fit into my schedule the best.	9/20/2018 2:01 PM
100	I am not sure what liturgical style actually means. Communion every week is most important, time and day next.	9/20/2018 1:58 PM

3	[in his written survey, he picked all times from 9:30 to 11:00AM]	11/7/2018 8:02 AM
4	We live in a very high pace society where the majority of us are sleep-deprived. Having the ability to sleep in a bit on Sundays would be great.	11/7/2018 7:49 AM
5	Having an 8:30 service seems to be a perfect time. It's not too early and not too late. At times the 10:30 service (especially if it runs over) seems a little late.	10/31/2018 6:39 AM
6	We pick the Saturday service as being the most convenient for us from a scheduling standpoint.	10/30/2018 2:30 PM
7	while we are most committed to Sunday mornings for adult education and the 10:30 service; there are times when we would be inclined to attend the Saturday 5:30 service when we are going out for the evening and we are on the Marietta side of Atlanta. My preference would be to have a full service with music and communion starting at 5 PM so that we would be able to go on to our evening activities which are often scheduled for six and 630.	10/30/2018 2:24 PM
8	I like the current format with Sunday School at 9:15 and the service at 10:30. In the summer, it would be great to move to one service at 9am, potentially.	10/8/2018 4:40 PM
9	10am would mean done and home by noon which might be nice. but it would also mean earlier sunday school. and only reason i'm ontime for church, i'm already in the building.	10/8/2018 4:04 PM
10	I would love to experience a Celtic Evensong service.	10/2/2018 1:58 PM
11	[on the hardcopy survey, she marked Saturday at 5:30, and Sunday at 8:30, circling each, and she also marked Sunday at 9:00 and marked "dream time" next to it.]	10/1/2018 3:02 PM
12	Would like to have Sunday evening worship instead of Saturday evening. I usually attend 10:30 but would like to also have the option of a Sunday evening service. Sunday is more convenient for me rather than Saturday evenings . Also would allow clergy to have their well deserved time off for two days in a row. They work Sundays anyway.	10/1/2018 12:37 PM
13	actually would be flexible	10/1/2018 10:40 AM
14	In the summer a combined service was once done for the 8 and 10:30 services. It was a good idea. You could see people you missed the rest of the year.	9/29/2018 6:46 PM
15	I like the 10:30 service time because it ends just in time for lunch, and puts Sunday School at a reasonable hour. We get up at 5:30 the whole week so it's nice to not have to get up until 7 on Sunday mornings. I prefer the current morning schedule because it gives us the afternoon free and I'd otherwise probably waste the morning away.	9/28/2018 11:40 AM
16	8 is too early and 10:30 is almost too late since it reduces the time on Sunday for other activities	9/27/2018 8:27 PM
17	That time works best for me after Sunday School.	9/26/2018 6:31 PM
18	Just works for me personally...	9/26/2018 12:07 PM
19	An hour or half hour shift would allow time to spend at coffee hour but still get home by lunch.	9/25/2018 2:36 PM

20	Also like the 10:30 Sunday schedule	9/24/2018 7:49 PM
21	Any time frame between 8:45 and 9:30 would be ideal for me.	9/24/2018 4:25 PM
22	Could sleep just a little later	9/24/2018 10:42 AM
23	Often I have large family dinner gatherings at my house on Sunday afternoon. A 9:30 service time would be perfect for me.	9/23/2018 2:57 PM
24	I enjoy the current time on Sundays.	9/23/2018 2:32 PM
25	I am happy with 8, 8:30 would allow a little extra sleep on a Sunday morning though! But, I appreciate the knock on effect that has on Sunday school and the later service.	9/23/2018 12:07 PM
26	Oddly enough, I am not a 'morning person,' but this really seems to work at Saints Peter and Paul.	9/22/2018 4:21 PM
27	I know 9:30 (or 9am) would currently interfere with Sunday School, but this time would be ideal for me	9/22/2018 10:25 AM
28	The present schedule works great for me	9/22/2018 9:07 AM
29	Love starting the day with Church.	9/22/2018 8:39 AM
30	Due to mandatory commitments that adults have, i.e. work, personal, etc. a Sunday 5 p.m. semi monthly might serve a need.	9/21/2018 6:01 PM
31	5:30 Saturday's regularly but also offering an 11:00 service on Sunday with the glorious music	9/21/2018 2:29 PM
32	This time gives us opportunity to attend Sunday School, have service, and get out before afternoon.	9/21/2018 10:59 AM
33	Even though I like 10:00 am...I am fine with 10:30 am on Sunday.	9/21/2018 8:36 AM
34	Not too early that it's hard to fit in Sunday school beforehand.	9/21/2018 7:42 AM
35	No issues with times available.	9/20/2018 7:54 PM
36	Would love a monthly Praise & Worship service with guitars, tamborines, and singing	9/20/2018 4:22 PM
37	I would love to have a Sunday afternoon service, so if I'm out of town, I can make Church. If so, I'd like it to be just like the Sat. service.	9/20/2018 3:37 PM
38	10 or 10:30 works for me	9/20/2018 3:16 PM
39	10:30 Sunday is fine....10:00 would be just a smidge better.	9/20/2018 3:15 PM
40	I wouldn't change anything - I can see and talk with people with whom I've become friends. We may not interact outside of church service but during that time, we are family. It's like not seeing a friend for a long time (in this case just 1 week) and we get together for fellowship and Prayer.	9/20/2018 2:50 PM
41	It's hard to get up early sometimes, but the ability to be home by 11:00 a.m. and still have a good part of the day for other activities is nice. I don't think it matters what time services are held. The people who will attend are going to come when the service is offered. If they have other competing interests, they won't.	9/20/2018 2:39 PM
42	I'm not a great early morning person now that I'm retired. ☐	9/20/2018 2:24 PM

1	[in the written response, she marked "classical choral anthems..." and "old fashioned hymns..." and "folk music" and "the music we curently have. See her comments for #6 about classical music being important] Variety is wonderful to me but don't care for bands, drums, etc	11/7/2018 10:05 AM
2	More Biblical and connected to God.	11/7/2018 8:42 AM
3	Praise & Worship music is fine for ALPHA or Discovery, but I do not care for it in Sunday worship.	11/7/2018 8:02 AM
4	I would like more variation maybe folk music on any Sunday & classical choral anthems by the choir in very special occasions.	11/7/2018 7:49 AM
5	As mentioned above, music is what speaks to me and is a very big part of the worship service. I think SPSP does a great job with the "mix" of music including almost all of these styles in the worship service. I hope this continues as I would not be able to choose just one kind of music style. Changing and including different styles of music I believe helps keep the service fresh, and can appeal to all types of people, and gives us all an appreciated for the many different types of worship music available. PLEASE DO NOT CHANGE TO JUST ONE STYLE OF MUSIC.	10/31/2018 6:39 AM
6	we have a superior organ with great acoustics. George Chestnut is a very accomplished master organist. Again, as a traditionalist, having grown up in a church in Memphis Tennessee with a massive grand organ; my preference is to expand our repertoire of classical hymns, Preludes and postlude's giving George the opportunity to use all aspects of our organ. I am not inclined to listen to modern guitar and/or piano. It is been my experience in several Episcopal churches where we have been attending that the participation of the parishioners in singing the hymns is very important. Instantly, when hymns are not very well known and the parishioners find the tune difficult --very few of us are professionally trained to be able to read music and therefore the biggest sound you hear in the pews is the sound of those of us closing hymn books.	10/30/2018 2:24 PM
7	In addition to the old fashioned hymns, it would also be nice to attend a church in the area where the they offered some non-religious musical concerts and plays as well as some less formal activities during non-worship times.	10/23/2018 4:12 PM
8	I love classical and plainchant as well.	10/20/2018 10:42 AM
9	And contemporary music	10/14/2018 10:49 AM
10	I would really like some variety added to include more piano music as well as praise and worship on a quarterly basis	10/9/2018 4:50 PM
11	i like high church music and here i am lord... i like it all but more traditional	10/8/2018 5:47 PM
12	I love the music we currently have, but it would be great to introduce some newer praise and worship music in one of the services	10/8/2018 4:40 PM
13	like to see it mixed up. maybe even rotate thru a couple of the above choices for 3-4weeks. or pick a flavor for a season like how the rite changes for lent or even pick a flavor for the middle song for a season. having a song the older kids can sing and get behind helps keep them interested.	10/8/2018 4:04 PM
14	No folk music please	10/8/2018 7:39 AM
15	One of the main reasons I attend St. Peter St. Paul is because of the pipe organ. It adds such beauty & majesty to the church service, both when it is played alone or with the choir.	10/6/2018 4:50 PM
16	I enjoy all of the above forms of music. I do miss music at the Sat 5:30 PM service and consider it just the price I pay for the worship time since that is most important to me. I listen to hymns, etc. on my own.	10/3/2018 1:47 PM
17	It would be nice to have some more uptempo songs.	10/2/2018 8:23 PM
18	Also like old-fashion hymns, but this question only allows one answer.	10/2/2018 3:01 PM
19	[on the hardcopy survey, she marked Praise Choruses, Old fashioned hymns, Folk music and Music since 2000.] Definitely would like to have more contemporary service with guitarS or other instruments and lead singer. What we had years ago with Glen Cox & others at 8:30.	10/1/2018 3:02 PM
20	Also would love to sing praise choruses. Traditional, old, hymns, very difficult to sing for those of us who are not singers. Also, too many verses in the traditional hymns. Too lengthy with many verses and loses the meaning.	10/1/2018 12:37 PM
21	second choice is music we have not at 1030 service	10/1/2018 10:40 AM
22	I love familiar hymns from childhood and the more modern praise music. The music is a big part of the service for me. I'm glad we are encouraged to sing the songs played during communion.	9/30/2018 12:54 PM

Thanks for taking about 5 minutes for this survey: some fast questions, some short ones, and a few that make you think.

23	I like the mixture. I am a fan of incorporating newer (relatively speaking) music into the canon without jettisoning the rich history of great music we have accumulated across the ages. My personal music tastes are simple: if I think it's good it's in regardless of the copyright date. 2018 or 1450.	9/28/2018 11:40 AM
24	I have grown up in the choir and enjoy the Piano and Organ music	9/27/2018 8:27 PM
25	Would also love incorporating guitars into the music.	9/27/2018 9:30 AM
26	No guitars & no to too much folk music... this is for Baptist, Lutherans, Jehovah's Witnesses other less sophisticated groups. Classical music & traditional Episcopal hymns are best. The moment you bring guitars & too much folk music in the exodus will begin in drove to the exits. SPSP is not a contemporary church nor should its culture try to be. There are plenty of other contemporary churches in Marietta to offer this type of entertainment. Let George do what he does best...bring out the best in a gorgeous organ and many talented singers + guest performers offering french horn & trumpet solos.	9/26/2018 8:21 PM
27	With Richard Morris, he believed that music should be sung in Latin. He permitted the congregation to use the 1982 Hymnal. Greg Colson had a much broader style and eliminated the Latin hymns. His successor had a broad Episcopal Church repertoire. George also has a broad repertoire, which really appeals to me.	9/26/2018 6:31 PM
28	Take what we have and then, I would prefer to have more of a mixture than what we have with an increased emphasis on praise choruses, folk music and new music. I would love to have a service once a month that incorporates something other than traditional music that we have now.	9/26/2018 2:48 PM
29	I would select several of the above options	9/26/2018 8:32 AM
30	We enjoy the choir at the 1030 service as the "spirit " fills the air. The larger crowd also promotes a higher energy. Being "new visitors" we have not heard any music other than traditional hymns. We would like to hear more of a mix of the "newer music" with some traditional. The 8:00 Service is tough to get through regarding the music. The earlier service time suits us as we are "early morning" people, but the "dragging music" is enough to send us to the 1030 service.	9/26/2018 7:39 AM
31	Some old fashion hymns are nice...Episcopal songs are not what we were brought up with and some are harder to appreciate.	9/24/2018 7:49 PM
32	We are very blessed to have George Chesnut and a dedicated choir. I think music is a very important part of our service.	9/24/2018 5:18 PM
33	I much prefer "happy" music with an upbeat tempo. This would fit most of the year with the exception of Lent which calls for more contemplative music. I would love to have a "praise band/Jubilate choir" at St. Peter and St. Paul.	9/24/2018 4:25 PM
34	I think our current music under the direction of the wonderful George Chestnut is just about perfect!	9/24/2018 11:50 AM
35	I enjoy singing the hymns I grew up with that my parents and grandparents also sang in their worship. To me this is an important part of my worship experience and it might be nice for the young people to have this experience too.	9/24/2018 11:32 AM
36	Enjoy the current music bu open to all forms including acoustic praise and worship. Change is good.	9/24/2018 10:42 AM
37	Music should be inspiring and traditional; making me feel I am in a special place doing something special.	9/23/2018 6:15 PM
38	The music at SPSP is wonderful. I also enjoy praise choruses, Plainsong Chants, Folk music, and Old fashioned hymns.	9/23/2018 2:57 PM
39	The "Ascendit Deus" is gorgeous, as is the Tallis & Byrd selection.	9/23/2018 2:32 PM
40	I like the mix that we have but would like to increase the mix to include the praise choruses and even the more modern material. Honestly, at 8am, we just need more people and more people to sing!!	9/23/2018 12:07 PM
41	I don't read music and am not musical by nature, I prefer songs like "Onward Christian Soldiers" which are well known and easier for the non-musical to sing	9/23/2018 10:22 AM
42	Give me an organ each week. I'm not really into guitars.	9/22/2018 4:18 PM

Thanks for taking about 5 minutes for this survey: some fast questions, some short ones, and a few that make you think.

43	I really enjoy the current lineup of music at SP&SP but would love some additional folk-style music, perhaps at the 8am or Saturday services, or even at an additional Wednesday or Sunday evening service.	9/22/2018 10:25 AM
44	Love to sing any songs from the hymnal	9/22/2018 9:07 AM
45	there is a multitude of excellent hymns not found in our hymnal; a second hymnal would be a grand idea.	9/21/2018 6:01 PM
46	Some occasional spiritual gospel songs would be a nice addition.	9/21/2018 4:53 PM
47	Would enjoy some more folk/praise with the hymns especially during communion.	9/21/2018 4:06 PM
48	We really used to love the choice of having traditional hymns at one Sun service and praise and worship at another. I think some Episcopal churches are really not encouraging attendance by younger people who mostly like the joyful noise the Bible says to "make". Also teenagers like praise and worship. We like it all except the chanting all the time. I used to like singing of scripture at morning prayer.	9/21/2018 2:29 PM
49	I do like the newer songs we learned at Alpha and Discovery but prefer organ music over piano or guitars	9/21/2018 10:59 AM
50	variety is good	9/21/2018 10:20 AM
51	I like the music and hymns now. I enjoy singing along with the choir especially the traditional hymns that are very recognizable.	9/21/2018 8:36 AM
52	Plus organ and piano	9/21/2018 7:42 AM
53	Any and all Cursillo music is strongly preferred.	9/20/2018 7:54 PM
54	I love the traditional hymns. I feel this is one of the best ways I connect with God during the service. They are thought provoking and often emotional for me.	9/20/2018 7:36 PM
55	all of it. I like all of it but have gotten use to the folk music at another church which I like. I had only been exposed to traditional music.	9/20/2018 6:33 PM
56	I love the music at SP&P. I do miss the bells	9/20/2018 4:44 PM
57	I actually like all of it, but the folk music helps me feel closest to our Lord.	9/20/2018 4:22 PM
58	I am not attracted to North Point Community Church for the church. I like what we are currently doing. I love the tradition that SPSP provides me and my family.	9/20/2018 3:45 PM
59	If I could pick more, it would also be classical choral anthems and an occasional folk song or two. I think this music allows people to focus on the words and what is being spoken rather than getting too into the music and forgetting what the service is really about: hearing the word of God through readings and communion.	9/20/2018 3:33 PM
60	I have been in the Episcopal Church for a long time. I have done happening, cursillo and other services in the church. Every piece of music is important at that time. I just do not want to hear the same song over and over. As for singing part, solos, choir, and congregation is what is needed to express the music. The only thing I have noticed there are no solo music anymore and sometimes a single voice says it all.	9/20/2018 3:16 PM
61	Like classucal, plainsong, old hymns, etc. Needed to make more than one choice here...not so big on pianos in the nave...In Dier ist Freude (Bach) a big favorite as well as Come Thou Font of Every Blessing....	9/20/2018 3:15 PM
62	I prefer a blend of 2010 or more recent contemporary worship songs (hillsong, Bethel, passion, etc) with updated hymns with guitar and piano	9/20/2018 3:05 PM
63	I really like the music we have...once in a while there is a hymn that is hard to sing, but that isn't too often. I have been at other churches that occasionally will have a "contemporary" service with guitars and more of a folk music feel. I do not mind it as a quarterly or a few times a year thing, but I would not like it every Sunday.	9/20/2018 3:00 PM
64	It's peaceful for me! Do like music, but prefer the quiet and peacefulness of the service.	9/20/2018 2:50 PM
65	I attend the Saturday evening service so there is no music. I appreciate the quiet time however, when I do attend a service with Music I prefer Traditional and or classical hymns and music.	9/20/2018 2:42 PM

66	Music is a big deal to me and my family. Please, no guitars, keyboards, videos, etc...Music since 2000 is good for listening on the radio or at youth parties and events or other Church activities, not weekly worship service. I doubt any of those songs will still be around in 20 years.	9/20/2018 2:39 PM
67	Please, anything but CCM!	9/20/2018 2:38 PM
68	I HATE new church music: this is my only chance to hear the good stuff--NO GUITARS!	9/20/2018 2:33 PM
69	Worship music of todays Christian contemporary radio; Phil Wickham, Big Daddy Weave, Hillsong	9/20/2018 2:32 PM
70	combination of classical and folk	9/20/2018 2:27 PM
71	More common old hymns Some of ones choosen nobody knows	9/20/2018 2:22 PM
72	I like all kinds of music.....	9/20/2018 2:20 PM
73	Please don't change our worship music at 10;30. I would be very disappointed.	9/20/2018 2:16 PM
74	I like the traditional hymns and organ. I would not attend a service with other instruments such as guitars and drums, not am I interested in contemporary songs.	9/20/2018 1:58 PM
75	Acoustic guitar and piano, Top Christian 100 Billboard charts mixed with updated hymns for congregational singing.	9/14/2018 11:10 AM

1	[in the written survey, she marked both the current schedule, but also "yes, for the right style" and wrote next to it "might try--maybe--don't like to come out much at night.]	11/7/2018 10:05 AM
2	Sunday nights are our family nights where we get all together & cook & enjoy a quiet evening in preparation for the coming week. Saturdays are packed with kids activities.	11/7/2018 7:49 AM
3	I would definitely come Sunday nights if you had the same worship service as we have now at the 10:30 service.	10/30/2018 9:48 PM
4	Haven't considered Sunday nights - would have to think a bit more about this. I'm thinking Saturday still works better for us.	10/30/2018 2:30 PM
5	might come from time to time just to change it up; don't think I would swap out one for the other.	10/30/2018 1:24 PM
6	I wouldn't mind coming to a service on Sunday nights, except for Sunday School. I would still want to come to Sunday School on Sunday mornings, so would therefore like to go to an adjacent service.	10/8/2018 4:40 PM
7	sunday nights are full - youth choir and youth group. plus need to get ready for the week.	10/8/2018 4:04 PM

Thanks for taking about 5 minutes for this survey: some fast questions, some short ones, and a few that make you think.

8	I am a traditionalist & cherish what I grew up on--- vestments, choir in robes, pews, organ music, stained glass windows, all the readings from the Bible, an intelligent sermon, communion.	10/6/2018 4:50 PM
9	I have always wanted to be home on Sunday evenings - not even to go out to socialize. It just seems like a good way to begin my week.	10/3/2018 1:47 PM
10	We would enjoy the option but we also enjoy Sunday school and an evening service would be less convenient for Sunday school attendance.	10/2/2018 1:58 PM
11	I am not sure about Sunday nights. Worth a try, I guess if other options fail.	10/1/2018 3:02 PM
12	Would prefer Sunday evenings as opposed to Saturday evening.	10/1/2018 12:37 PM
13	If a modern praise service were added, I would attend occasionally but don't know that I would change completely from Sunday mornings or that I could commit to both.	9/30/2018 12:54 PM
14	I'm not much for what most call the contemporary style of music. I find the songs are often ill-suited for congregational singing (since they are pitched to suit the particular singer who recorded them) and leads to a performer/audience dynamic rather than a corporate worship dynamic. I do not wish to diminish the role of the congregation in the worship. That is one of the things we realized we were missing when we came to SPSP.	9/28/2018 11:40 AM
15	I would prefer 9am	9/27/2018 8:27 PM
16	Not interested in Sunday nights... this is not a good idea. Not interested in a different style...what we have now is excellent. Don't change it.	9/26/2018 8:21 PM
17	Because we are active on Sunday mornings, we would most likely not come Sunday night, although if you had a service with more modern music we might come some Sunday nights, but it is more convenient to come only once per day.	9/26/2018 2:48 PM
18	Probably would alternate between regular Sunday morning service and an evening service. But I would attend special evening services like Vespers.	9/26/2018 12:07 PM
19	We are "morning people" and would not regularly attend a Sunday evening service.	9/26/2018 7:39 AM
20	Due to my work schedule this would be a challenging option. However, i love the idea of offering a different style	9/25/2018 2:36 PM
21	We may occasionally attend this if for some reason we couldn't attend morning service.	9/25/2018 1:19 PM
22	We would swap out occasionally for a different type service but like the ones we have!	9/24/2018 7:49 PM
23	Would like to see the 10:30 service remain as it is - traditional in all aspects	9/24/2018 5:18 PM
24	But only as an alternative. I occasionally attend Saturday night due to scheduling or travel.	9/24/2018 10:42 AM
25	Having been raised in Catholic Church I feel the church sets the format and the congregation follows. Mass was special and demanded a certain protocol; otherwise I can stay home and listen on radio or watch on television (do my own thing).	9/23/2018 6:15 PM
26	I usually still have family at my house on Sunday nights	9/23/2018 2:57 PM
27	I would, although this would be hard if it was ever week, so I would probably then have to switch between 8am and the Sunday evening.	9/23/2018 12:07 PM
28	I am a traditional person and, frankly, am not very open to changes in language and form of the worship service. I think it would be great if other styles were available at other times for other worshippers. It might bring more folks into the church.	9/23/2018 10:22 AM
29	Not to say I would not attend a Sunday night service...	9/22/2018 4:21 PM
30	see comments in question #8. I would enjoy a service with with some folk music and perhaps something kind of meditative to wind us down for the evening but also uplifting to set us for the week ahead.	9/22/2018 10:25 AM
31	I'd like to see us add a regular youth service, conducted by the youth.	9/21/2018 4:53 PM
32	I would experience a different style. I know that times are changing, and I feel that a different style of service, possibly with the music, would attract a younger, more diverse group of parishioners. I hate to see the Episcopal Church shrink due to not offering different music/service options.	9/21/2018 1:36 PM
33	i think it would be interesting to do as experimental time. have a changing "theme": contemporary, contemplative, 1928 prayerbook (hahaha), etc.	9/21/2018 10:20 AM

34	I do like what we currently have, but that doesn't mean I wouldn't participate in trying out different styles. I think it's good to mix things up once in a while.	9/21/2018 7:42 AM
35	I would come to experience the different	9/20/2018 9:08 PM
36	wouldn't be energized by a different style	9/20/2018 8:31 PM
37	I would love to have that option!	9/20/2018 7:40 PM
38	I would come sometime on Sunday night but I generally have another commitment then.	9/20/2018 4:22 PM
39	I am not sure but I am willing to try a least once as long as it is a communion service.	9/20/2018 3:16 PM
40	Would not come Sunday nights	9/20/2018 3:15 PM
41	Sunday night worship would conflict with youth currently, but I'm in favor of offering a worship service that would be more engaging to our youth and young adults.	9/20/2018 3:05 PM
42	I love the 5:30 service - it meets my needs as already expressed. Would not want to change	9/20/2018 2:50 PM
43	I am not looking for a different style. There are a lot of other Churches offering contemporary services and I am not interested for a variety of reasons, not the least of which is the informality. What does "energized" mean here? The world is overly full of stimulation. I look for Church to be a different place where I can pray, breath, and be refreshed for the week.	9/20/2018 2:39 PM
44	We might alternate.	9/20/2018 2:01 PM

Rite I (with "thee" and "thou" and theological language; we've used this in Lent)	14.05% 26
Rite II (with "you" and "yours" and simpler prayers; our usual form)	23.78% 44
Mostly Rite II, with Rite I in Lent (our current practice)	51.89% 96

1	I guess I am a traditionalist. [in the written survey, she added on the back: "I like it when, from time to time, we change up some of our Liturgy of the Word. I think sometimes the same over and over again, Sunday after Sunday, becomes so rote to some of us. I try to focus on the words and meanings, prayers etc each week, but sometimes I catch myself just repeating the same with no thought to what I should really be focusing on in my heart as I repeat the wording. PS even when saying the Lord's Prayer I try so hard to think of what I'm saying to God so that its not just repetitive words."	11/7/2018 10:05 AM
2	while I am very satisfied with the Rite II service as we typically use it, and I appreciate the use of Rite 1 during Lent; in one of my former parishes in Columbus, Mississippi we would schedule Rite throughout the year as the service on the first Sunday of each month. Recognizing the generational gaps between my age approaching 72 differs substantially from the interests and preferences of the young generations that are just now approaching adult status. The history and foundations of our church provide an opportunity to worship God in a number of ways as a community. Needless to say, the church must continue to evolve and make itself relevant to those of the younger generations or we will continue to lose status and parishioners who will either turn away from the church or find other avenues to meet their needs of worship and praise to God.	10/30/2018 2:24 PM

5	i grew up on rite 1. there is comfort in the thee and thou, comfort of memories of childhood. yes, we use it for lent but why not use it for some services in other seasons. again 3-4week runs. changing it up.	10/8/2018 4:04 PM
6	I love Rite I from childhood (I still read the King James version of the bible in Sunday School) but like the current use of it only during Lent.	9/30/2018 12:54 PM
7	Prayer of Humble Access!	9/26/2018 12:07 PM
8	We are a "divided family" as my husband prefers a Rite I style for occasions. I prefer a Rite II all the time for the "relating to" everyday life. I also have to think about our younger generations and capturing and keeping them - I believe they prefer a Rite II style. They are generally more "into a less traditional music style too." We need our youth, 20's and 30 year olds!	9/26/2018 7:39 AM
9	As my age indicates, I started out with the 1928 prayer book and transitioned to the 1979 when that was introduced. I love the old language but am ok with rite II and it's variations	9/24/2018 11:32 AM
10	This is a wonderful alternative. I like to hear Rite 1 occasionally even though I am not a cradle Episcopalian.	9/24/2018 10:42 AM
11	I enjoy both.	9/23/2018 2:32 PM
12	Enjoy hearing Eucharistic Prayer C during the summer.	9/21/2018 4:06 PM
13	But I equally like Rite I and Rite II, But I couldn't vote for both.	9/21/2018 10:59 AM
14	would be nice to have even more styles used throughout the year.	9/21/2018 10:20 AM
15	Like the way we switch Rites currently Lent, etc. but need birthday prayers and anniversary prayers during Lent.	9/21/2018 5:05 AM
16	Right 1 more often.	9/20/2018 8:15 PM
17	Not growing up in the Episcopal Church, I don't have the attachment to Rite 1 that others do.	9/20/2018 4:44 PM
18	For each Sunday at least one service of each - and mix them between the early and later services, not just Rite I in Lent.	9/20/2018 4:22 PM
19	Possibly Rite 1 first and third Sundays, Rite 2 second and fourth. Rite 1 for Easter Eve and Christmas Eve, Rite 2 for Christmas Day maybe	9/20/2018 3:15 PM

1	Low church for every Sunday; High Church for very special occasions. [she marked high church and low church on the written survey]	11/7/2018 7:49 AM
2	Again, I feel SPSP does a nice job with mixing the two types of styles depending on the season. I would have to say, I would not enjoy having a high energy/contemporary praise band as part of the worship. This style, however may be good for a Saturday/Sunday evening service that would speak to the younger kids. Perhaps adding this type of service once a month on a Sat/Sun evening service would work?	10/31/2018 6:39 AM
3	Christmas and Easter would be high church, Formal but simple otherwise.	10/30/2018 2:30 PM
4	i enjoy a high church. comfort in the liturgy. but why can't we have simple familiar music - guitars some weeks and use rite 1. why does high limit the flavor of music? its not all or none. communion songs can be easy sing along or the walk out song, during the right season be uplifting and happy. we need something that hooks the kids that they know and see coming and look forward to during the service and at the same time doesn't cause the gray hairs to roll their eyes at "the nonsense" - use the old baptist/folk songs the gray hairs know and update them with guitars for middle or communion songs.	10/8/2018 4:04 PM
5	Formal for lent, easter and Christmas. Simple for summer	10/2/2018 1:58 PM

Thanks for taking about 5 minutes for this survey: some fast questions, some short ones, and a few that make you think.

6	[on the hardcopy survey, she marked both Low Church and A mix.] Low church & contemporary.	10/1/2018 3:02 PM
7	Not sure the right mix but I like each of the options. Love the High church for holidays and a big energy contemporary with a hand would be wonderful occaionally.	9/30/2018 12:54 PM
8	I like it as is...I think an occasional high energy contemporary with a band would be something to explore to compete with Northpoint and other non denominational churches.	9/29/2018 6:46 PM
9	I love differences in music style and worship style.	9/27/2018 9:30 AM
10	I like what we have; however, I don't think we can compete with the megachurches which surround us. I think we need to be the best Episcopal church we can and focus on our Episcopal Church liturgy. This would include the sanctus bells, traditional music, formal vestments and gestures, and choral Eucharist.	9/26/2018 6:31 PM
11	We are again, as stated earlier a "mixed opinion" family. However, we fall into your formal/simple and high energy style - truly coming from a music standpoint. The flow of the service suits us, the prayers and the preached messages have been great and inspiring.	9/26/2018 7:39 AM
12	Special occasions/ designated once per month High Church. Or have simple service 8am & high church 10:30 for a choice? Would like to see some aspects of high energy contemporary with band incorporated while still holding on to some tradition. (not too complicated, right?)	9/25/2018 2:36 PM
13	just like we have	9/24/2018 7:49 PM
14	I believe a mix of all of the above would be wonderful. High church for special holidays with a sprinkling of more contemporary at least once a quarter. Also, a youth choir for all children and youth from second grade through high school. This allows the youngest ones learn from the older kids.	9/24/2018 4:25 PM
15	I do like a mix but lean towards high church as described in the first choice during the advent and lenten seasons.	9/24/2018 11:50 AM
16	Our church in Los Angeles was based on Oxford movement and "High Church" and we enjoyed it very much...as we did St. Phillip's Cathedral in Atlanta.	9/23/2018 6:15 PM
17	I like the services as we have them.	9/23/2018 2:57 PM
18	I have enjoyed musical variations that are maybe described as "guest additions to worship," e.g. parishioners who share their gifts on cello and violin, High Lonesome Bluegrass Mass with Tim Sharp, Lessons & Carols at the holidays, along with the music from our hymnal.	9/23/2018 2:32 PM
19	Mostly high church but a little more relaxed. Sanctus bells are ok, but the chanting doesn't resonate with me.	9/22/2018 10:25 AM
20	All of the above have a place/season. The only one I don't prefer is contemporary, not there isn't a time/place for that style worship and should not to be overlooked. Add another service, don't replace with current services/time.	9/22/2018 7:18 AM
21	Not just depending on seasin	9/21/2018 2:29 PM
22	Possibly a mix offered with the different service times. I do love the High Church, but don't feel the necessity of it being offered all the time.	9/21/2018 1:36 PM
23	a mix that helps keep us out of a rut and bring attention back to the why of worship. keep us from going through the motions.	9/21/2018 10:20 AM
24	I like the mix we have now.	9/21/2018 5:05 AM
25	I like the higher church to bring attention to the higher/important times....I'm open to lower church, as well as trying new styles the rest of the time	9/20/2018 9:08 PM
26	Formal but simple but love the Sanctus bells.	9/20/2018 8:42 PM
27	High church on Holy days and high energy band all other services.	9/20/2018 7:54 PM
28	I love high church, especially in and around Holy Days. But at least one time a month I would like less formal folk music type service.	9/20/2018 4:22 PM
29	What are we doing now?	9/20/2018 3:45 PM
30	Simple in Pentecost, high in Easter and Christmas, reflective in Advent and Lent	9/20/2018 3:16 PM

31	I honestly like the way we have it now...I don't really like the use of incense but can deal with it when we have it. I would also love to see a youth service maybe once a year...have the youth speak and sing.	9/20/2018 3:00 PM
32	I feel it would be nice to have some more contemporary services interspersed throughout the year, maybe at least once a month.	9/20/2018 2:50 PM
33	We like High and Formal, sometimes Low as long as the music is traditional and there is communion. There's a hymnal called "Lift Every Voice" that has more casual, yet tried and true hymns.	9/20/2018 2:39 PM
34	sometimes I like high church, but not all the time. Please no low church; we already live low lives	9/20/2018 2:33 PM
35	As mentioned earlier...I would love to see more contemporary Christian music (Praise, Folk,etc) mixed with our current hymns/ choir. Perhaps more formal during Lent.... less so during other seasons	9/20/2018 2:24 PM
36	I prefer low church with elements of high church mixed in.	9/14/2018 11:10 AM

1	Perhaps a mix because this is hard for me to answer because I believe it would depend on the age-group we're talking about. young people love high energy services, I think--older, more traditional	11/7/2018 10:05 AM
2	I like the mix with higher church etc. based on the season, while having formal but simple throughout the year.	10/31/2018 6:39 AM
3	Not sure, but adding instruments with the organ is nice. For people with no church background, high church might be a little intimidating.	10/30/2018 2:30 PM
4	Even though I like high church I think that high energy on a different time would get more people	10/9/2018 6:46 AM
5	i can't see the service leaving a high church platform. soemtimes it is with incense. if you are lookign for Andy Stanley, we aren't it. if you need liturgy to flow your worship, we have it. and on high days, we take it up a notch. for the C & Es i'm pretty sure they come because for the high church. but again, high does't mean the sermon ca't be aimed at the teenagers every once in a while or the music soemthing they would flow with.	10/8/2018 4:04 PM
6	A mix as an introduction to liturgical worship. High church for lent and easter and Christmas. Personally I love all worship styles and value high church	10/2/2018 1:58 PM

7	low church and contemporary [she marked both Low and a mix on the paper survey]	10/1/2018 3:02 PM
8	High church is beautiful but may intimidate those who didn't grow up with it. More churches seems to be moving more modern so maybe adding formal or even high energy contemporary as options might draw a broader group.	9/30/2018 12:54 PM
9	I don't know the answer. I like who we are but to draw younger people we may have to become a little more high energy...how about an organ and a band :) Elton John style...	9/29/2018 6:46 PM
10	A combination of high formal service and high energy, depending on the church season.	9/27/2018 9:30 AM
11	I feel a more relaxed style is preferred by the above mentioned group. I think too, they respect the tradition of the flow of the service and the traditional prayers. There are a lot of church communities around that portray this style. Overall, capturing, engaging and sustaining members is vital to the future success of church communities.	9/26/2018 7:39 AM
12	Start with simplicity but have some aspects of traditional church blended in. Always high church on special holidays/occasions	9/25/2018 2:36 PM
13	High for celebratory services and simple for others	9/25/2018 2:29 PM
14	I believe we should appeal to all backgrounds, a mix of all of the above might bring more young families into the church.	9/24/2018 4:25 PM
15	probably the formal but simple service with high church during Holy Seasons	9/24/2018 11:50 AM
16	Not sure on this question. Depending on each person's reason to attend.	9/24/2018 11:32 AM
17	No comment...	9/23/2018 6:15 PM
18	A mix, depending on the service attended; casual on Saturday, simple and relaxed at 8:00, more formal at 10:30. That is what we are doing now, and I think it is great!	9/23/2018 2:57 PM
19	I think it depends on what people are seeking.	9/23/2018 2:32 PM
20	I'm more high church and it would be, in my opinion a huge mistake to move away from that because it would alienate many of the current flock. But additional styles might bring younger people in.	9/23/2018 10:22 AM
21	Seasonal seems inviting, focusing on the import of the event(s) we are celebrating and honoring, which your messages do so beautifully, always.	9/22/2018 4:21 PM
22	a mix of formal/simple/relaxed most of the time and more formal/high church during Easter/Christmas and other Feast services	9/22/2018 10:25 AM
23	More praise and worship music in summer with some at least once a quarter during a year	9/22/2018 9:49 AM
24	Unfortunately I feel I must step out of what I enjoy to engage a group who do not attend service at all	9/22/2018 9:00 AM
25	If someone wants to go to church with me, I would select the service to attend.	9/22/2018 7:18 AM
26	a mix with a philosophy behind it (the "why we do what we do")	9/21/2018 10:20 AM
27	High Christmas & Easter.	9/21/2018 9:56 AM
28	This is really tough. I don't want to discourage finding other Episcopalians who would love the formal service, but if you're looking to bring in the masses the more realistic way to engage would probably be through a low church service.	9/21/2018 7:42 AM
29	If we don't have our own flavor we can't expect to attract new folks. So ride with the traditions we have. Otherwise if you change to "suit the times" it will come off as inauthentic anyways and that helps no one.	9/21/2018 5:05 AM
30	not sure, depends on the person	9/20/2018 7:36 PM
31	Hard to know - depends on the person - some may want a lot of structure and others may be turned off by the liturgy every week.	9/20/2018 4:22 PM
32	High on holy day, simple on other Sundays, relax when on less formal days	9/20/2018 3:16 PM
33	Depends on where they are coming from liturgically speaking - a huge difference from middle/hugh Roman Catholic and southern Baptist.	9/20/2018 3:15 PM

38	A mix of high church and formal. Ideally one service of each type each Sunday so people can choose, and not feel totally alienated if they have to switch from their "regular" service once in a while.	9/20/2018 2:38 PM
39	this is tricky because no one is ever honest about what they want.	9/20/2018 2:33 PM
40	Trick question - the people you ask about are not all alike. We have to remember who we are. If we pretend to be someone else and energize newcomers, will we soon burn out trying to be someone we aren't?	9/20/2018 2:05 PM

17	Really, all kinds. That's why different churches do it different ways. I've been a part of churches that try to be all things to all people and they end up being a lesser version of themselves. I'm a proponent of let's be us and we will serve the people who worship like us. Because if we don't, then who will serve us in the Christian community?	9/28/2018 11:40 AM

22	We have friends at St Ann's and JF. Our Catholic friends like and prefer the "updated music". The Sunday evening teen focused service is well attended by youth and older adults for the "upbeat spirit" in the air. Overall, the prayers and flow of the service is tradional. The music is contemporary .	9/26/2018 7:39 AM

27	My friends that attend church are either Episcopalians or Lutheran with services similar to us. A few traditional Catholic and a few Contemporary Evangelical.	9/24/2018 11:50 AM
28	We have Presbyterians, Methodists and Roman Catholives as well as Episcopalians in our family. As for our current neighbors, we are new here and don't have that info.	9/24/2018 11:32 AM

38	I believe many do not attend any services.	9/21/2018 2:29 PM
39	I have friends that are Methodist, Baptist, and those attending contemporary evangelical. The growth of the contemporary evangelical has amazed me. The music seems to speak to the movement, and the message being delivered. I personally am not "moved", but I have also found that the casual nature of the way people dress is also inviting to many.	9/21/2018 1:36 PM

59	We know a variety of people who prefer their worship for different reasons. I think hospitality and a great sermon will go a long way in attracting new members. I'd care more about how how I felt leaving the service than about whether sanctus bells and an organ were used. Maybe exposing someone to the beautiful and sometime moving music that they're not used to hearing is a draw. You can find "praise bands" anywhere.	9/20/2018 2:39 PM

12	I love what we do and where we are, however, I am not in or part of the mainstream. I like to worship in an environment that is different from what I encounter everyday in the secular world. The otherworldliness of our worship and its history is what draws me in. Let's just say if I want to go to a concert with loud music, I'll pay for it myself. I like the communal and participatory nature of our worship, where everyone sings. I don't want to sit back and be an observer- I will tune it out.	10/20/2018 10:42 AM

40	I'm new to the Episcopal Church so I'm still learning about the services; what we do and why we do it. I'm comfortable with the worship service as is. 48	People come to SPSP because it offers a traditional Episcopal experience. Change for the sake of change is not a good idea. Attempting to become something we're not will likely cause parishioners to leave SPSP. And their generous contributions will go with them.	9/26/2018 8:21 PM

1	Please put Prayer for the Nation back where it was--I dislike what I consider the disruption between the creed and Prayers of the People.	11/7/2018 10:05 AM
2	[he had further comments in the written survey for #12: If a majority wanted to cease these bells, I wouldn't be upset, but I like them; and for #14: Sometimes our traditions can be hard to understand for the church challenged. I get that. We should make it easy for them but one can't be all things to all. We need to keep our cool traditions.]	11/7/2018 8:02 AM
3	Drop the Psalm section. Antiquated & obsolete. It doesn't "speak" to me at all.	11/7/2018 7:49 AM

4	As mentioned in question 16, adding more "quiet time" prior to the beginning of the service. Continue adding different types of worship music, while keeping the traditional songs, chants and hymns. Keeping more on time with the 10:30 service. It's difficult to please everyone all the time, but I enjoy SPSP and like the blend of the traditional service for the seasons, while keeping the simple traditional for the weekly services. I realize it is equally difficult to attract the younger families who often time seem to want the praise band, contemporary Evangelical worship styles and feel if there were a way we could incorporate that at another service it would hopefully attract the younger families while still staying traditional for the older set. Perhaps having a more traditional service earlier and having a contemporary service at a later time would be the answer. I feel young families have a harder time getting to church at an earlier time, so a later more contemporary service might be more appealing to the younger demographics. Thanks for taking the time to put together this survey and ask for our feedback.	10/31/2018 6:39 AM
5	change is inevitable and when appropriate necessary. While I enjoy and am very satisfied with the current format of the 1030 Sunday service, I am open to review potential changes.	10/30/2018 2:24 PM
6	As long as change isn't just for the sake of changing, I am open to trying new ideas.	10/30/2018 1:24 PM
7	Less formal and conservative, more traditional hymns, eliminate the "classical" choruses. I would like to hear some more contemporary music mixed in.	10/23/2018 4:12 PM
8	I am not particularly tied to singing the third verse of "My Country'tis of Thee," as I do not see the need for patriotism in worship. There seems to be a growing number of folks who confuse what it means to be a Christian and what it means to be American.	10/20/2018 10:42 AM
9	While I am happy with things the way they are, I feel that some people miss the old Praise and Worship format we used to have at the early service.	10/16/2018 3:30 PM
10	I'm simple, short and sweet works (but I like the longer sermon (15 minutes). A change in routine is welcomed too. (sorry Methodist side speaking)	10/13/2018 7:04 PM
11	Announcements at the end of the service and a time for people to stand up and be connected to those who are seeking connection to ministry of any sort.	10/9/2018 4:50 PM
12	I believe that the separation of church and state must be maintained as a general proposition. The current flag ceremony and patriotic song should be limited to our services on patriotic holiday weekends.	10/9/2018 7:38 AM
13	Over the summer, our choir director selected several different Songs of Praise at the beginning of the service for us to sing. All of them were easier to sing than the one we sing every week, "Glory to God in the Highest". I read music & am accustomed to that song, but if I were visiting St.Peter St.Paul, I would NOT be able to sing that song!! It is difficult!! It's not even that pleasant to the ears. Can't we sing some of the Songs of Praise that we sang this summer, or ANYTHING other than "Glory to God in the Highest:???" Thanks for considering this request!!	10/6/2018 4:50 PM
14	I prefer a Rite I service.	10/6/2018 8:50 AM
15	I understand why we use Rite 1 during Lent but, as a long-time Episcopalian and a female, it brings back all the pain of the lack of inclusion of women in the church - in liturgy and in the parish. I expect Rite 1 is perhaps comforting to some and for that reason I do not ask for a change.	10/3/2018 1:47 PM
16	Change 5:30 service to Sunday 5:00 pm with wine and cheese fellowships. Current Saturday service ends without any fellowship period.	10/2/2018 5:11 PM
17	Somewhat less formal and more songs with congregation participation.	10/2/2018 3:01 PM
18	I do not prefer the sung prayer for our nation. I enjoy not thinking about politics and while at church and the tune and allegiance feels out of place when we are worshipping God and expressing care for all people and nations of the world.	10/2/2018 1:58 PM
19	Already stated in answers to previous questions	10/1/2018 3:02 PM
20	In order of what empowers my worship: 1 Holy Eucharist 2 sermon/message 3 prayers 4 praise and worship songs that are easy to sing and happy music Last traditional hymns	10/1/2018 12:37 PM

21	I don't know what is "negotiable" for us. But, I feel the services are maybe a bit rigid (same exact format each week, every verse of every song, 12 minute sermon, ...) and there isn't any explanation for why we do things if you aren't a lifelong Episcopalean (e.g. the way the Gospel is brought to the people and read is very rich in symbolism, but I had to Google why we do it that way to really get it - just sitting in the service, I don't really get an explanation for why we do stuff the way we do it). Not knowing what is "negotiable" makes this hard to answer, but I don't really see why more flexibility/variation would necessarily be a bad thing.	10/1/2018 10:40 AM
22	Praise and worship music.	9/29/2018 11:21 AM
23	I find that I feel a bit uncomfortable singing to the American flag each week. I bristle at the conflation of God and American patriotism (as though God is an American). I prefer to maintain my focus on God and not divert it to the flag. I do, however, like praying for our country (even mentioning our leaders by name). Even if we keep the current practice I'll just make adjustments to my worship, but I thought I'd throw my two cents in on that debate (knowing it can be controversial to some viewpoints).	9/28/2018 11:40 AM
24	earlier time than 10:30	9/27/2018 8:27 PM
25	During the Uitti/Certain days, the 11:15/10:30 service was High Church Choral Eucharist, which certainly distinguished us from our neighbors and seemed to draw high attendance.	9/26/2018 6:31 PM
26	I would really like a mixture of music. Perhaps have certain services once a month that have different music-See above for the type of music above, but perhaps it could be at 8:00 one month, then at 10:30 another one month. Would like a mixture of praise music or all praise or modern music once a month.	9/26/2018 2:48 PM
27	The direction I would go, if any, is higher. Probably not the direction most others would advocate. Fine as-is!	9/26/2018 12:07 PM
28	I grew up in the Methodist church. Longer sermon . More music. Less repetitive rituals. Communion once a month. I am presently attending episcopal for family reasons but find myself daydreaming during the formal ritual parts of the service that are repeated every week.	9/26/2018 8:38 AM
29	Music style change from tradional to a more updated contemporary style.	9/26/2018 7:39 AM
30	I like high church with classical music.	9/25/2018 2:29 PM
31	I have been talking with George Chestnut about adding a more contemporary style of music on a periodic basis. I have been told that at one time SPSP had this style of worship. I'd love to try it again.	9/24/2018 4:25 PM
32	I think providing a more quiet contemplative atmosphere before the worship service at 10:30 would be helpful... it seems that the 8:00 am service provides that but for those that want both the quite and the rich liturgy and music of the 10:30 there isn't a good option. Can we find a place to greet people and socialize that is further away from the sanctuary? Or can we communicate more strongly that inside the sanctuary is a place of preparation and prayer for worship?	9/24/2018 11:12 AM
33	I am fine but open minded.	9/24/2018 10:42 AM
34	Additional praise/worship music on a periodic basis	9/24/2018 7:16 AM
35	I do not care for contemporary music or services, have left in the past when I came to a contemporary music service.	9/23/2018 3:04 PM
36	I really love the 8am service. The only change I think would enhance it would be the type of music and some people to help us sing.	9/23/2018 12:07 PM
37	Praise and worship choruses	9/22/2018 4:48 PM
38	Do Episcopalians change? I have enjoyed(since I was a child) the same familiarity with prayer and the service that I enjoy today.	9/22/2018 4:18 PM
39	Mostly fine as-is but, for me, a different start time (9 or 9:30) and perhaps a Sunday or Wednesday evening service with some folk hymns would enhance my worship experiences.	9/22/2018 10:25 AM
40	I trust the leadership in making decisions regarding the services. Only comment is that sometimes I feel rushed from one part of the service to the next and that a few more seconds of silence would be helpful.	9/21/2018 4:06 PM
41	The sirmons are generally little more than repeating the reading in a dull manner which is not connecting to current life.	9/21/2018 3:34 PM

Thanks for taking about 5 minutes for this survey: some fast questions, some short ones, and a few that make you think.

42	Not sure but consider praise and worship in some services.	9/21/2018 2:29 PM
43	I think we can change as needed, but I do not prefer contemporary services. I want church to be a place of peace and contemplation with communion. Not guitars, folk songs. I feel every opportunity to come to the altar is important including birthday, anniversary blessings and especially side altar prayers. I love the songs at communion like "Here I Am Lord"	9/21/2018 10:59 AM
44	Shorter sermons	9/21/2018 10:35 AM
45	the mix of styles with a reason behind them. focus on praise, focus on prayer, focus on community, etc.	9/21/2018 10:20 AM
46	Cut out the music at the 8:00 AM service	9/21/2018 9:56 AM
47	I'm selecting this out of principle...I don't have a specific idea yet but I will pray about it. There should never be a scenario where "no change" is required. There is always something that could be better!	9/21/2018 7:42 AM
48	I think mixing in some more newer music once in a while might help. Grew up with more praise. Not talking about praise all the time. Just some.	9/21/2018 5:05 AM
49	Cursillo type music and worship style.	9/20/2018 7:54 PM
50	I would love more folk or praise music	9/20/2018 7:40 PM
51	If there were any suggestion I would give, it would be to make the sermons more applicable to what it happening in our current lives. I like that they are rooted in the Bible, but would like more about what we struggle with daily and how that relates to Gods teaching.	9/20/2018 7:36 PM
52	Occasional folk service and intermixing Rite I and II each Sunday.	9/20/2018 4:22 PM
53	We very much need to work toward empowering the congregation to sing. SP & SP should be a singing congregation!	9/20/2018 4:10 PM
54	I would like to see more nursery or child care during entire service. There is so much distraction coming from small children. It would even be helpful if the ushers would assist in removing children (with parents assistance).	9/20/2018 4:08 PM
55	Love where we put the prayer for our country. With everyone at odds over what is happening in the country it is nice to be reminded that God is in control and to pray. That is really the only that is different than other Episcopal Churches.	9/20/2018 3:16 PM
56	Updated worship music with less organ and more piano/guitar that it easier for most people to sing	9/20/2018 3:05 PM
57	No ideas, but change is good, esp at church	9/20/2018 2:52 PM
58	The introduction of some more contemporary music and praise songs mingled with the traditional hymns we already have	9/20/2018 2:50 PM
59	I am very concerned that we are trying to make changes to compete with mega Churches who use videos, praise bands, etc... I am skeptical of the "feel good" gospel and of going where "it's fun", etc... Do we miss the point among all the show?	9/20/2018 2:39 PM
60	Please drop the flag ceremony. I am both proud and ashamed of America and I don't want those feelings to distract me from worship. Isn't it enough to pray for our leaders a prescribed in the BCP? (For full disclosure, this is a major reason why we stopped attending regularly.)	9/20/2018 2:38 PM
61	it would be nice to have a good sound system that is reliable. Sometimes, you can hear and other times its difficult	9/20/2018 2:35 PM
62	As explained earlier...changing up the service to be more contemporary/ Praise and Worship...perhaps once a month on Sunday.	9/20/2018 2:24 PM
63	Options for contemporary worship/music	9/20/2018 2:19 PM
64	more outreach/service opportunities.	9/20/2018 2:18 PM
65	I would like to see a change in our music to be acoustic guitar and piano with a few lead singers and a blend of updated hymns with contemporary songs. Not high energy but simple and focused on God.	9/14/2018 11:10 AM
